ROAMER A SPEED MARVEL

ANDREW MILLER'S GELDING MAKES NEW AMERICAN RECORD FOR MILE AND EIGHTH.

Runs Distance in 1:49% in Winning Washington Handicap at Laurel, Displacing Mark of 1:50 That Has Stood Since 1908.

Laurel, Md., October 10.—Andrew Miller's great three-year-old, Roamer, brilliantly redeemed himself for his defeat on the opening day of the Laurel meeting when this atternoon, with 124 pounds up, he ran a mile and an eighth in the Washington Handicap in new American record time. His race was the sensation of the afternoon, and for that matter of the eastern racing season of 1914. All the more remarkable was the fact that Roamer made his own pace and at the end was well in hand. The time by fractionals was sensational. The quarter was run in 22%, the half in 46%, three quarters in 1:11%, the mile in 1:36%, and the mile and an eighth in 1:49%. The previous record of 1:50 was made by Vox Populi as a four-year old, at Santa Anita Park, Cal., December 19, 1908, with 110 pounds up. Under the scale, Roamer carried twenty-live pounds more than Vox Populi. Butwell scat Roamer into the lead right after the start. The lightly-weighted Robert Bradley attempted to keep pace with the son of Knight Errant, but quit after chasing Roamer for five furiongs and nen Gainer took up the task. Behind Gainer came Stromboli, with Tartar heading Buskin. Swinging into the stretch, it became apparent that Roamer would win, although Tartar made a bold bid at that point. Tartar was unequal to the task and after a short effort he dropped back, leaving Roamer, to go along and finish a leugth and a half to the good. Tartar easily disposed of Gainer, and Buskin, coming with a rush, took third position. The winner was loudly cheered when he came back to the stand, and horsemen agreed that his performance was the most wonderful they have seen many years.

By far are biggest crowd of the meeting was in attendance and the mutuel machines did a big business.

With the granting of dates to Charleston, to race from December 1 until January 9, the managers of the South Carolina track have entered into a working agreement with H, D. Brown, so that with the racing in Charleston and in Cuba an important winter circuit will be established. It is the intention of the Charleston association to conduct a second meeting in the early spring at the conclusion of the Havana meeting. Fred Auerbach, who so ably took care of the preliminary arrangements of the last Charleston meeting, is in charge again. Officials that have been named are: Stewards, C. H. Pettingill, Jack Campbell and Martin Nathanson; judges, W. F. Schulte and Joseph McLennan; handicappers, Martin Nathanson, clerk of the course, Joseph McLennan; starter, James Milton; racing secretary, Martin Nathanson, clerk of the course, Joseph McLennan; auditor, Frank J. Bruen.

Today's crowd was one of the most representative.

Bruen.

Today's crowd was one of the most representative ever seen on a Maryland course. On the clubhouse balconies were seen Senator Johnson N. Camden, Senator J. Hamilton Lewis, August Belmont, chairnan of the Jockey Club, J. G. Follansbee, Frank Brown, former governor of Maryland, former Senator Joseph W. Bailey of Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Westcott.

George W. Langdon, having turned J. W. Messervey's horses out for the winter, was a visitor at Lauret today. He was also a purchaser of a few mutuel tiekets on Roamer, as he is a great admirer of Andrew Miller's wonderful gelding.

TIMELY GOSSIP FROM KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky., October 10, 1914.—The meeting now on at Churchill Downs has more than fulfilled every expectation to date. Ine attendance has been generous and of the highest class, and the races up to the high standard set for racing at the Downs.

Downs.

The next stake event to be run at the Downs is the Cherokee, $1,000 added, for three-year-olds and upward, one mile and one-sixteenth. This event has thirty eligibles and it is anticipated that such popular performers as Helen Barbee, Leo Skolny. Robinetta, Prince Hermis, Jenny Geddes, Belle of Bryu Mawr, Christophine, Furlong, Grover Hughes, Ringling, Old Ben, Milton B. and Little Father will be among the starters. This event will be run Wednesday.

The feature race of the weeting, the St. Legg.

Ringling, Old Ben, Milton B. and Little Father will be among the starters. This event will be run Wednesday.

The feature race of the meeting, the St. Leger Handleap $2,000 added, two miles and a quarter. will form a fitting finale for the fall season of racing at the Downs next Saturday. There are twenty-three entries for this stake, including the champion four-year-old, Great Britain, which has won four long distance races this fall, including the Toronto Autumn Cun, two miles and a quarter, and the Louisville Cup, two miles, at the recent Douglas Park meeting. Though trainer John Walters has been quoted as saying that Great Britain would not race any more this year, the noted son of The Commoner is in such superb condition that it is betieved this trainer will let him go and finish out his long distance engagements. Great Britain is considered to be the best long distance horse in all America today.

Great Britain possesses a wonderfully good temperament. He never shows ill temper. A few days are when on the track and with the course alive with horses he laid down and rolled over half a dozen times. In speaking of the report that his owner, G. M. Hendrie, intends to place him in the stud in Canada when his racing days are over, trainer Walters says that he does not think Mr. Hendrie has ever given any scrious thought to Great Britain's future in the stud. He expects to see him race for several more seasons. Trainer Walters thinks his weaning brother at Edenwold Farm in Tennessee is as grand a looking youngster of his age as lives. He is the first foal Touch Not has had since she dropped Great Britain, she having been barren in the season between the foaling of Great Britain and this youngster.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. Smyth's apprenticeship allowance has expired. The minimum purse offering at Juarez the coming winter will be $400.

Mrs. Lathrop Brown, who races under the name of Miss Chamblet, has bought the bay gelding Chupadero from J. L. Coyle.

The Bowie management is contemplating many improvements, to be started as soon as the meeting closes tomorrow. Two hundred and fifty more stalls will be built and it is likely that the grand stand will be extended.

I Striker whose stable years of the contemplating of the contemplating that the grand stand will be extended.

I. Striker, whose stable raced at Hamilton Friday and Saturday, is on his way to Juarez with fourteen horses. He recently bought Rye Straw from C. Thomas and Eiderdown from E. L. Fitzgerald. He is taking Parcel Post, which has been racing in owner, J. O. Milliner. Striker reports that Horicon, which he formerly owned, is doing stud duty in Canada, and that Chess, one of his horses, died recently.

VOGUE WINS THE GOLDEN ROD.

Gallaher Bros. Score a Fluky Victory in Stake at Churchill Downs.

Louisville, Ky., October 10.—Brilliant racing, featured by extremely close finishes, marked the running of today's card at Churchill Downs. The track was still in a bad condition as a result of the train of this morning, but the going was firm and surprisingly fast time was recorded. The Golden Rod Stakes, at six furlongs, with selling conditions, and worth $1,290 net to the winner, was the headliner of the afternoon and co-raged several fairly good juveniles. The betting showed a big increase over yesterday. This was in the main due to the improved card and greater attendance. Favorites and second choices swept the card, the last four races going to the first choices. The prices against all the winners were liberal, excepting in Pan Zarca's case.

W. G. Yankes' representatives figured in a double when Gipsy Love and Flying Feet accounted for their respective races. Nobleman another from the same stable, just missed landing his purse when Christie beat him by a small marrin, thanks to Loftus also scored with Pan Zarcta.

Vogue won the juyenile stake, but her victory was somewhat fluky, for Grecian, which finished second, was best and succumbed only through the diminutive Smyth's inability to hold her together during the last seventy yards. Grecian was coupled with Sandstone because J. E. Madden has an interest in the latter.

last seventy yards. Grecian was coupled with Sandstone because J. E. Madden has an interest in the latter.

Fred Auerbach, who will be in charge of the Charleston meeting, is on his way from Jackson-ville to Maryland, where he plans to do some missionary work among the horsemen in behalf of the Charleston association. He will come here pext week, when he will be ready to announce the full plans for the meeting and make known the early conditions that will govern the program book. Since the close of last winter's Charleston meeting, Gus Miller, of Jacksonville, has leased the plant. The leasing of the track was at the suggestion of Santo Sotille, whose extensive business interests in Charleston absorbed too much of his time to permit him sharing with Fred Auerbach the management of the plant.

Jefferson Livingston was among today's arrivals. It was the first visit that Mr. Livingston has made to any track since his departure from Saratoga during the early period of the meeting. He looked over the twenty yearlings recently bought in England by P. T. Chinn for his account.

The promoters of the New Orleans racing project seem to be in carnest about holding a meeting and sent a request this afternoon to Charles F. Grainger to recommend a list of officials who will be willing to serve for the Crescent City racing.

J. P. Ross today sent into winter quarters the horses Uncle Hart and Carpathia.

W. F. Schulte will leave Monday for Charleston to take care of preliminary details pertaining to the opening of the meeting there and also to get the track in good racing condition.

JUAREZ STAKES TO CLOSE FOR ENTRIES.

While those owners who subject their horses to the long grind of winter racing, look to the daily grist of overnight purses for their chief reward, they nevertheless, take a lively interest in such provision of stake races as may be made for the better class of racers. It thus befalls that those who intend to take part in the coming hundred days of racing at Juarez, will be bound to scan the conditions of the eight events now proffered by the Jockey Club Juarez with eareful scrutiny, the matter of nominating a horse to stake races in which it may have a good chance being quite an art. The races now offered are to close for entries at midnight of Thursday, October 29, and are all of the guaranteed value description. There is a certain measure of simplicity in one feature of their conditions, in that six are for all ages and two for now two-year-olds of 1915 will be announced later on. The conditions of the present list are published elsewhere in this edition of Daily Racing Form, and they are all commended to the favorable consideration of owners and trainers. All nominations are to be mailed to Racing Secretary Edward Jasper, Box 983, El Paso, Texas.

RACING'S VALUE RECOGNIZED.

A writer in a London paper says. "The current year is a rather important one in the history of the Cesarewitch and the Cambridgeshire. Both events having been inaugurated in 1839, it is their 75th anniversary, and I sincerely hope we shall be able to celebrate these events in the mood of people who are lappy in their knowledge that the economical and political importance of racing has at last been generally recognized. In fact, at a time when nobody thought of war, there was more opposition to racing than at the present moment. Even the Puritans have come to recognize the vital importance of the horsebreeding industry, which they admit cannot prosper without means by which to select the fittest material for the purposes of amelioration. Is there anybody who, by sound reasoning, is able to convince us that if Eclipse, Monarque, The Flying Dutchman, Le Sancy, Barcaldine, Stockwell, Bend Or, Galopin, St. Simon, Newminster, etc., had not proved their worth in public trials, they would yet have become great sires?"

CHARLESTON RACING DATES GRANTED.

New York, October 10.—At a meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club held at the office of the chairman, August Belmout, the approval of the stewards was granted to the Charleston Fair and Racing Association to conduct a race meeting at Charleston, S. C., from Bécember 1, 1914; to January 9, 1915. C. H. Pettingill was appointed steward to represent the Jockey Club at this meeting.

E. C. Smith was appointed steward to look after the interests of the Jockey Club at the autumn meeting of the Harford Agriculture and Breeders' Association at Havre de Grace. Under the head of new business a number of trainers and jockeys were granted licenses. Among the former were P. Bratton, G. W. Scott, James S. Ownbey, D. Murray, E. Trueman, M. F. Sheedy, Matthew Feakes, J. Stephenson, R. V. Haymaker and C. B. Sprague.

SUMMER-LIKE WEATHER AT BOWIE.

Baltimore, Md., October 10.—Summer weather prevailed this afternoon and a large and enthusiastic crowd, taking advantage of the pleasant conditions, journeyed to Bowie. Keen and stirring finishes marked a majority of the races.

Guy Burns made his appearance and piloted three mounts, but third was the closest he could get. Lewin ran in the name and interest of a new owner in the sixth race. E. Cautino having secured him from Martin Foley at an auction sale in the paddock just before the first race. Among the others disposed of were Haldeman, Maggle's Sister and Surpass.

Edward McBride received word today that jockey Farrington, who was held by the immigration authorities at Niagara Falls, will arrive here Monday.

The Million Dollar System SIMPLE AND FLAT BETS

IF YOU

play the races you should have my system to make money and keep it. This is no wildcat system that requires a $5,000 bank account to pick you a winner. This system gets all kinds of prices, from 1.2 to 30-1, and will win day after day at any old track. You can take the back charts of Daily Racing Form before making a bet and see for yourself and it will require but a small amount of money to operate with. The price is $10 and you will never regret your investment. It can be worked in hankbook, either with flat or progressive bets. Send money orders or registered letter to PAY AFTER YOU WIN.

I have exclusive information on two horses starting at Louisville the coming week that will win at good prices. I am in touch with one of the most successful stables there and one trial will positively convince anyone that my information is genuine. I will continue to deliver the same goods during the entire racing season. Here is a grand chance for reliable bettors to obtain my winning information. Terms to honest players ONLY. Winnings of a straight $2.00 bet, money to be forwarded to me next day after the race. Send name and address where telegrams will reach you.
